Mr. Harold Weisberg,
313 "H" Street, N.W.,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Harold:

Thanks a lot for your letter of Sunday. We have gone over the Elliott story and it's very interesting. I am almost sure we will be able to use it in June. It might be necessary to add to the photographic material however. If it is, I will communicate with you forthwith.

I am sending you a copy of the April CLICK. The only thing that I think should be especially interesting to the Washingtonians is the George Bernard Shaw speech on the inside cover.

Of course if the Lend Lease Bill was still being debated this would be a more interesting article than it is with the bill practically afait accompli.

Thanks a lot for your kind offers none the less.

I will write you again tomorrow.

Sincerely,

M. Robert Rogers,
Editor
